Diane Garner

Greetings Sisters in Christ!

Mission u just concluded; it was a time to reconnect and recharge. We will carry with us through the months ahead, the hope revealed through the Christ in our lives.

As we look forward to our gathering as a district organization at our North District Annual Celebration on September 20 at Camarillo UMC, we hope you are making plans to attend. Be present as we celebrate the Quiet Disciples in our lives, elect new District leaders, affirm our District Pledge to Mission and share a vision, a new way forward, for our North District.

The United Women in Faith motto, Love in Action, exemplifies those we identify as Quiet Disciples. The beauty of our organization is that we are a force to be reckoned with when we lock arms with one another in our common effort to care for women, children and youth across the globe and here at home. Who among us would you lift up as an example for all to emulate? The nomination form is included in this newsletter on p.5.

The vision developed by your District Leadership Team for the year(s) ahead will hopefully move us in the direction of a more vibrant organization where we can more fully serve those who call themselves United Women in Faith. I know I am being vague, but I really want to share the details with as many of you as possible IN PERSON!

See you in Camarillo!

Practicing hope,
Diane Garner
District President

Through the generosity and efforts of women like you, we are confident this goal can be reached! As a permanently invested endowment, the Legacy Fund will be an ongoing source of income, providing the assurance that the important work of United Women in Faith can always continue.

Show your support by making a donation of $5 or more during the Annual Celebration and receive a Legacy pin to wear proudly.

Pledge to Mission: Financial Gifts Change Lives

United Women in Faith support programs in the United States and around the world that improve life for women, children and youth and their communities.

United Women in Faith assists nearly 90 organizations across the United States through grants, technical support, and member involvement. National Mission Institutions are community-based organizations and social service agencies that were almost exclusively founded by women in the 19th century to serve marginalized communities and populations across the United States. National Mission Institutions empower women, care for children, support seniors, educate youth, provide housing for domestic violence survivors, and offer residences for special needs children and youth.

United Women in Faith also supports and empowers local women in 39 countries around the globe to be leaders in the church, community, and the world. We provide academic scholarships and support Regional Missionaries—personnel serving in their home regions with church, ecumenical and grassroots partners in educational and empowerment programs for women and youth.

Thank you for your unit's participation in the Pledge to Mission next year!

See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is who we are!
1 John 3:1 (NIV)

As Women in Faith and Children of God our purpose to be like-minded. My question to you is: How do we carry out the work God has given us?

I am asking each of us to earnestly pray, asking God to send us women to close the gap and show us how to become better stewards and move ahead.

As I know some have attended Mission u, we look forward to seeing more participation during our North District Annual Celebration, September 20 in Camarillo.

As we look toward the 2026 pledge commitment during this time, please remember Candle of Commitment. It's a wonderful way to honor a person or organization. The honoree(s) name(s) will be printed in the California-Pacific Conference Annual Celebration Booklet on October 18. (See p.17)

Remember: Our amazing creativity and talents give back a portion of what God has gifted us with the support work of United Women in Faith.

- National Mission Institutions such as David and Margaret Youth and Family Services, Neighborhood House of Calexico, Susannah Wesley Community Center and Toberman Neighborhood Center.
- Regional Missions focused on health, eliminating violence against women and training workshops.
- Scholarships to cultivate social justice.
- Advocacy for Children's rights, farm workers, and miners.
- Consecration of Deaconesses to a lifetime of service.

Social Action

Labarbara J.
Madison

Greetings to all of my United Women in Faith Sisters:

There is a saying or rather a song that ends like this: "Now it's time to say goodbye to all our company." That is not quite my feeling but it is what came to mind as I thought of ending my tenure as North District Social Action Coordinator. I am leaving my role as Social Action Coordinator, but never my dedication to eradicating injustices found around the world. So I will end this by saying, "See you real soon."

First, I'd like to say that the fight against immigrants and deportation is real and does not make us any better. How we are presently going about it is ugly and not of God. Our country was built on a Constitution that guaranteed equal rights and due process. Many of our leaders have ignored this rule (law) and are committing all kinds of illegal actions. I'm not taking time on this subject this month, but would like to say Jesus was an immigrant and a refugee during His early years. His story has become a powerful symbol for many people of faith, advocating for justice, compassion, and hospitality for immigrants and refugees in today's world.

(Matthew 2:13-15)

Last month I spoke of the dangers of climate change. They are numerous, far-reaching, and affecting our ecosystems and endangering our health. I previously named examples of climate change, for example: global warmth, extreme weather events, rising sea levels, ecosystem destruction, threats to water and food supply and human health, and the list can go on. But let's stop and look at solutions. There are many small, everyday changes we can make as individuals. These changes can help to reduce the impact on climate change. They may seem small but collectively they can contribute to our gain against climate change impacts.

Some practical and great beginning steps:

- 1. Unplug appliances and electronics when not in use.
- 2. Use smaller powered light bulbs.
- 3. Try to switch to green energy. Try to switch to solar.

4. Park that car. Walk or take the bus. Try a bike (great for your health).

5. Reduce Water Usage. Fix leaks and take shorter showers. When rinsing fruits or vegetables do it in a container and use the water to water small plants.

6. Minimize waste products. Take your own bags to the store. Reduce, Reuse and Recycle.

7. Take control, show up! Get a green thumb, grow your own food. If you don't have a yard or growing space, ask your local Home Depot person how to get started.

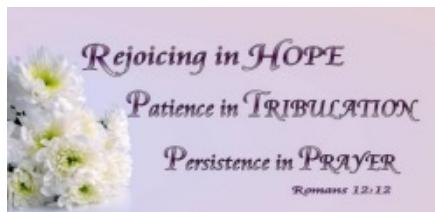

8. Buy Less. Stop using shopping as therapy. Try to repair or repurpose; if not, donate items to a charity.

See you soon,

This year's Mission u was an inspiring adventure! The theme of "Practicing Hope" was explored in study sessions and the big response was to DO something. Don't just sit and become depressed!

"How does Christ teach us to embody hope when our backs are against the wall?" We explored scripture - how hope is defined, how it unites us to build and gather together more creatively. Hope asks, what is possible in these troubling times?

The Mission u book, Practicing Hope, by Tabitha Holley is an excellent resource to use for programs in your local unit. Explore Bible stories to find answers to all these questions and be open to the Holy Spirit's leading!

I attended a heart-wrenching breakout session on immigration issues led by Monalisa Tu'itahi, an attorney who is the Cal-Pac Conference Immigration Coordinator. She talked about what congregations can do and Continued on p. 14 what we can personally do to promote hope - everything from writing to Congress to taking cold drinks to day laborers at Home Depot, and more. We can have hope in community with others!

View Monalisa's slide deck at calpacumc.org/immigration and talk about it in your UWFaith meeting. We CAN grow hope in these troubled times!

response Inspires, Influences and Impacts each of us so much more when we share and discuss with other Women in Faith.... How do YOU use response? Our gals enjoy hearing a special story from response each meeting. As I try to inspire EACH OF YOU, I realize that a short discussion about the story would provide additional meaning and inspire others, and perhaps even provide the inspiration for future action. At one of our next fall meetings, Pasadena FUMC United Women in Faith will share AND discuss this article from response:

In the July/August 2025 response, Deaconess Garlinda Burton's reminds us, "The time is now, family, and I am asking: What will we do about racism right now?" As Methodists we have a history of activism. In 1774, John Wesley's paper, "Thoughts Upon Slavery," denounced the enslavement of Africans in Europe and in the United States. Here is a list of antiracism actions to consider:

- Teach White children about Black, Indigenous, & People of Color/BIPOC including their history, culture, and experiences.
- Tell a racially bigoted person aloud that you disagree with them and tell them why. Pray with them, too.
- Vote against racism. ALWAYS!
- Join or organize a public ecumenical prayer vigil against racism.
- Challenge yourself by doing the Crossword Puzzle, "Ending Racism," based on the article.

Women in Faith Reading Program: A special shout out to Emily Jones, our UWFaith Executive for Racial Justice who leads the Reading Program, and her fantastic team of readers who select new books each year from all five categories: Education for Mission, Leadership Development, Nurturing for Community, Social Action, and Spiritual Growth. One of our favorite Spiritual Growth books this year is Michelle Obama's book The Light We Carry: Overcoming in Uncertain Times.

After reading it, I immediately suggested to my daughter-in-law that she and my two granddaughters (ages 21 and 23) read and discuss each chapter.

Michelle shared how important it was when she and Barack Obama had some rough times in their marriage and they went to counseling. Michelle also shared how important her special group of friends she calls her "Kitchen Table" are to her mental and social health.

What do you think the biggest, most long-lasting problem was with her parents' marriage? Who cleaned up the dinner dishes? Which way the toilet paper would hang? Who got the final say on naming the children? The answer will be in the next newsletter, or you can enjoy reading the book and find out for yourself.

PS: Great fun to listen to Michelle read aloud on Audible!

Rosalie Niemann,
Women's Auxiliary
Vice President

Dear women who support the Women's Auxiliary,

I continue to marvel at the happy gathering we had on May 3 - the second annual Membership Tea. It was held in the spacious Lewis Hall of the hospital, and once again we were well fed thanks to the catering service of the hospital. Four districts were represented as we honored our local heroes who go above and beyond.

This tea also gave us the opportunity to hear from Rev. Matthew Heyn, the director of the Spiritual Care Department. Because we recognize that spiritual and mental health are as important as physical health, we support the Spiritual Care program, in a large part by the gift shop, the Present Place.

We encourage women, friends and family to visit the gift shop when in the area. It will be helpful to phone ahead to make sure that the gift shop is open. More volunteers make it possible to extend the hours and the profit, so please consider contacting the volunteer department at 626-574-3646 about how to offer your time three or four times a month. Our annual membership dues (individual or group) also help us raise funds.

Finally, in the past we had more representatives on our board from each of the five districts. (We also offer long distance Zoom opportunity to join meetings.) Who from your local area might serve to represent you and help publicize the good work of USC Arcadia Hospital and the Auxiliary?

Our next General Meeting is at 10 a.m., Monday, September 22, at the hospital. We hope that you save the date for this biannual meeting that includes lunch. A virtual meeting option will be offered.

Look for more information, including Zoom information, in the next months.

Sincerely,
Rosalie Niemann,
Auxiliary Vice President

Mission u was Great!

By Kim Smith

A big shout out to the co-deans who ran Mission u, Barbara Miller and Theresa Ellis. Almost 100 women enjoyed Mission u this year on July 11-12 at Cal State, Long Beach. Barbara and Theresa and a small volunteer group are taking Mission u to Hawaii on July 18-19 where another 100 women are registered! The theme this year was Practicing Hope.

Through study sessions and worship services, interest groups and morning praise, women were encouraged to find hope and take action. The cafeteria provided great food and relaxed time for fellowship and meeting new sisters. Interest groups provided a choice of activities, from playing games, to making leis with candy, a short documentary film and a session on cultivating inner calm. Twenty-eight women attended the Immigration Response session with a guest speaker from Cal-Pac UMC's Immigration Task Force.

Friday night was topped off with an ice cream social on the roof garden of the dorm. All in all, the two days were packed with discovery of new hope. Looking forward to next year...

Our pledge to National is $125,000. As of April 30, 2025, we have sent $7,100 Mission money to National. We haven't reached 10% of our pledge. Let's all work as one to achieve our goal.

We Want to Hear

The purpose of this newsletter is to promote local unit health. Write a short article for the next issue that answers one or more of these questions:

- How have you recruited new members? (Mission today #4)
- What did you do for a program recently?
- How do you use Program Resources and the Daily Prayer Guide?
- Have you given a Gift to Mission or In Memory?
- Do you invite other United Women in Faith units to your events?
- What books do you recommend from the Reading Program?
- What is a successful fundraising idea?

The Time to Act Is Now

Editor's Note: Deaconess Garlinda Burton's speech on ending institutionalized racism had a profound impact on members of the program advisory group, who heard it in person on March 8, 2025, during their meeting at Scarritt Bennett Center in Nashville, Tennessee. At the request of several United Women in Faith members and staff, we have transcribed Burton's talk with the hope that all our readers can share in the same educational opportunity it provided our program advisory group. Portions of this speech have been edited for length and for clarity in a print format.

UWFaith Against Ice Raids

June 23, 2025 For Immediate Release

<https://uwfaith.org/press/2025/united-women-in-faith-speaks-against-ice-raids-militarized-federal-response-la-protests/>

NEW YORK – United Women in Faith today expressed alarm over the recent ICE raids and the current administration's response to pro-immigrant protests in Los Angeles. It released the following statement, which can be attributed to Sally Vonner, General Secretary and CEO:

“United Women in Faith is firmly opposed to the recent deployment of National Guard troops and Marines against pro-immigrant protestors in California. The federal government is taking extreme, militarized action against civilian protestors on its own soil, rather than addressing the underlying issue: the inhumane cruelty of our immigration system.

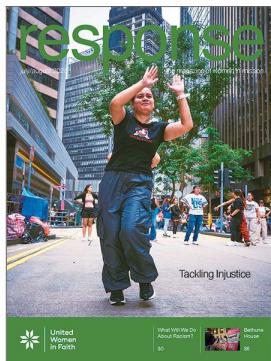

“Protestors in Los Angeles are expressing understandable outrage at recent ICE raids and the resulting suffering in their communities. Families are being separated. Children are being deported to countries that they have no memory of. Rightly, people are raising their voices and protesting these harms. Immigrant communities and their allies, in Los Angeles and across this nation, are crying out for justice. They are being met with pepper spray, tear gas, and rubber bullets – but no justice.

“Immigrants are a vital part of our communities, in Los Angeles, and all across the United States of America. As women of faith, we know that the love of the Lord does not stop at any border; God's justice is not limited to those with a certain legal status, and we are all neighbors in the eyes of God. As it says in Exodus 23:9, “Don't oppress an immigrant. You know what it's like to be an immigrant, because you were immigrants in the land of Egypt.”

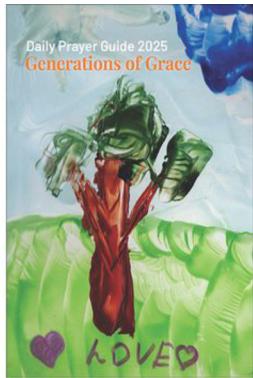

“As such, we must treat each other with dignity and respect. We must stop escalating violence and stop criminalizing communities of color. Instead, with God's help, we must seek the peace that comes with true justice.

“May the voices speaking out for immigrants be heard and heeded, in Los Angeles and around the nation, this week and always.”
